Riesling

Riesling is our thing. We think it is the variety that best suits our food.
This is the reason we have showcased our favourites.

With Riesling, it's not just about sugar. Acid has a huge impact on whether the wine appears sweet or not.

The cooler climates of Germany and Alsace, tend to produce wines with texture and acid.
Australia on the other hand tends to produce leaner and drier wines.

Our food does have some spice. A little bit of sugar manages to tame this and show both the food and wine in the best light.
